

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Sept. 7, 1921

WEATHER

Pressure is relatively low along the Atlantic coast and in the St. Lawrence valley and the temperature has changed little. Temperatures are now near the normal over the United States. There have been widely scattered showers within the last 24 hours in the Atlantic states.

The outlook is for generally fair weather east of the Mississippi river during Wednesday and Thursday. No important temperature changes are indicated for the eastern half of the country, although somewhat lower temperature is probable in the middle states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook—Gentle variable winds and fair weather Wednesday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras—Gentle to moderate variable winds and overcast Wednesday.

Forecast

Southern New England—Fair weather and moderate temperature Wednesday and Thursday.

Observations in Norwich

The Bulletin observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Tuesday:

	Ther. Bar.
7 a. m.	66 29.90
12 m.	67 29.90
5 p. m.	70 29.85
High 84; low 66.

Predictions for Tuesday—Partly cloudy.

Tuesday's weather—As predicted.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

	Sun	Moon
Rises	6:15	5:15
Sets	6:15	5:15
High	6:15	5:15
Low	6:15	5:15

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Curcio and daughter Elizabeth, of Lynn, Mass., were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzmaurice of South E. street over the week end.

Mrs. Peter Benoit leaves today for a short stay at Montclair, N. J.

A Ford car and a big touring car collided on the corner of Front and Providence streets yesterday afternoon, but no damage was done. The Ford was coming down Front street and the touring car was coming up the hill on Providence street and was going to turn the corner when the accident happened.

A party of campers spent the week end camping near Taftville pond where they enjoyed a good time in fishing and other amusements. In the party were E. W. Farrington, Chris Krause, George Kinder, John and Charles Volkmann.

Quite a few of the villagers went to Williamstown Monday to see the game between Williamstown and Manchester.

Federal services were held at the Taftville church at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for Arthur Boland with Rev. U. C. Bolander officiating. Prof. Hugh Kinder presided at the organ. Friends came to the service from the Taftville and Manchester churches. The deceased was a member of the St. Jean de Baptiste society. Cummings and King were the funeral directors.

Paul Nield, the English waterweight boxer and his father, John Nield are sailing for England on Sept. 19 on the S. S. "Arcturion". They have been boxing with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elliott of South E. street.

NORWICH TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser and sons Clark and Russell Fraser, of Lafayette street, motored Saturday to New Hampshire where they formerly resided and passed the week end and Labor Day with friends.

Miss Helen Burdick of Lafayette street left Monday morning to pass a week at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wheeler and daughter Grace, also Mr. Wheeler's mother Mrs. Charles Wheeler have returned after ten days trip to Niagara Falls, making the trip in their auto. Perfect weather was enjoyed and there was no accident.

Mrs. Beattie Beckwith, for several years one of the nurses at the sheltering arms, has been appointed a volunteer, her duties to begin Sept. 15. Mrs. Olive Ellis until recently for a number of years a nurse, and who has been in charge during the summer, returns to her home in Brockton, Mass. the last of the month.

The theme at the First Congregational prayer service Thursday evening will be "Why I Worry, Worry, Why?" 11 Thess. 3:1-15; Mark 6:1-4. The duty of all to contribute to the needs and progress of the community. The duty of making labor conditions just and wholesome. The joy of work.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Kinney and Mrs. William E. House of Town street returned Tuesday evening after several days' visit with relatives in Providence. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith and son Albert Jr. returned Labor Day to their home on Town street from Fishers Island. Mrs. Smith and son were at the island for several weeks. Mr. Smith who spent the week end with his family also remained during last week.

Chief Quartermaster Robert Wells Sterry of the United States Savannah stationed at Provincetown, Mass., spent the week end with his family at his home on Otobando avenue.

Miss Mildred Amelia Avery Kinney of Norwich town, left Tuesday morning for Taftville where this morning she is to take up teaching in the Church Hill school. Miss Kinney is a member of the 1921 class, graduated from Norwich Free Academy. She passed several weeks in New Haven and while there took the special teachers' course at Yale Summer School. Miss Kinney will reside at the home of Mrs. Arthur Barrett during the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter and children John and Mildred of Pleasant street have returned from a day's visit at the home of Mrs. Carter's uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wheeler of Leffingwell.

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Jarrett (Ruth Kimball), of Philadelphia, are visiting at Mrs. Jarrett's former home at 242 Washington street.

Friends have received cards from Lawrence Hamilton of Bliss Place reporting a most enjoyable automobile trip along the coast to Old Orchard Beach, Me., where Mr. Hamilton and party spent last Saturday.

JUDGE BROWN ON BENCH FOR FIRST TIME IN SUPERIOR COURT

With 38 accused persons put to plea the September criminal term of the superior court opened here Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Judge Allen L. Brown of this city, whose appointment as the first judge of the court became effective on September 1 was on the bench, filling his first assignment. Attorney Charles L. Stewart of this city served for the first time as public defender, the position formerly held by Judge Brown, and another of the court officials who was filling the place for the first time was Mrs. Sadie Macdonald of New London, who has succeeded Winfield Graham as court stenographer.

Upon invitation of Judge Brown Rev. George H. Strouss of the First Baptist church offered prayer at the opening of court and remained through the morning session listening to the prisoners who were put to plea.

Five men were in the pen and one woman prisoner occupied a seat in the rear of the clerk's desk. Nearly half of the men and women put to plea were charged with theft of cloth from mills in this vicinity, ranging in amount from $1,500 to $25. There were seventeen persons so accused, in several cases the husband and wife being put to plea together. One of the accused was a woman, charged in court with twin babies, about 6 months old, each parent holding a child as the accusations were read against them. The mills which had suffered from the alleged thefts were the United States Finishing Co. and Joseph Hall & Sons, Inc. of this city, and Palmer Bros. mill at Fitchville. Nearly all the accused in the cloth theft cases made their pleas through Matthew Malinowski, the Polish interpreter. State Attorney Hadial A. Hull presented the case to the court.

Plea Entered at Morning Session
The following pleas were entered at the morning session of court:

Harry Aaron, theft on May 25, in Fitchville of 55 yards of cotton cloth, valued at $25, three large spools of thread, valued at $7.50, from the Palmer Bros. mill, not guilty.

Carl Brown, 30, colored, burglary on Aug. 11 at Tiamas Dyeing and Bleaching Co. in East Lyme, not guilty.

Frank Chomski, theft on May 25 of $20 worth of cotton cloth from Palmer Bros. mill in Fitchville, not guilty.

Floyd Day, 16, theft on June 29 in Salem of a bicycle from Wm. Day, worth $50, not guilty.

Mary Ford, theft in Ledyard of $100 in money, gold watch, pillows and other articles of a total value of $225, not guilty.

Herbert Hanson, 15, and Frank Podewski, 16, on Aug. 12 in Montville attempt to rob Helen Smith, not guilty.

Frank Jacobin and Stephen Jakobik, assault and battery on June 15 in Bozrah on May Chapman, not guilty.

Richard H. Johns of Groton, non-support of his wife, June 1 to Sept. 1, 1921, not guilty.

John A. Johnson of New London, obtaining $500 under false pretenses from Oshorn Chappell for an alleged patent, not guilty.

Mike Kalata theft on May 16 of 250 yards of cloth, valued at $150, from the United States Finishing Co. of Norwich, not guilty.

Mike Karol and Nastasia Karol, husband and wife, theft on May 25 of 153 yards of cotton cloth, valued at $35 from Palmer Bros. mill at Fitchville, not guilty. The couple held twin babies in their arms while they listened to the reading of the complaint.

Andrew and Mary Kawalenko, husband and wife, theft on May 25 of 40 yards of cotton cloth, valued at $25, one spool of thread valued at $5 from Palmer Bros. mill at Fitchville, not guilty.

Mike Lapouch and Nais Lapouch, husband and wife, theft on May 25 of 200 yards of cotton cloth valued at $150 from the United States Finishing Co. at Norwich, not guilty.

Jerry Lapuch, theft on May 25 of a quantity of cotton cloth worth $20 from Palmer Bros. mill at Fitchville, not guilty.

George McFarland, 20, of Montville, statutory burglary on June 7 at the building of Patrick Walsh in Montville. Sarah Miggins, charged with arson on July 6 in setting fire to the house and barn of Herbert L. Harris in Preston, not guilty.

A. Oliver and Lillian Gilman, 20, accused of adultery on Aug. 15, not guilty.

Antif Pierszale and Lusia Pierszale, husband and wife, theft on May 25 of 165 yards of cotton cloth, valued at $100, and 10 balls of thread, valued at $25, from Palmer Bros. mill at Fitchville, not guilty.

Mike Shamit, theft on May 25 of a quantity of cotton cloth worth $20 from the United States Finishing Co. in Norwich, not guilty.

Samuel Smith of Stonington, indecent assault on June 24 at Stonington on Pearl Gordon, not guilty.

Eugene Sullivan, robbery on July 10, at London of $20 from Frank Mush in New London, not guilty.

Charles Wilcox, Archie Daniels, 18, and Wm. Neff, 19, charged with statutory burglary on June 27 at the building of B. Neff in Groton, not guilty.

The case against Wm. Truskis of New London, accused of assault, was nolle prosequere on recommendation of State Attorney Hull after Truskis had been called before Judge Brown, where he explained the circumstances of the assault and promised to keep out of trouble in the future.

Wm. Verville, of Groton, aggravated assault with a pistol on June 25 in Lisbon upon Paul Brennan, not guilty.

Fredat Wussiez and Dora Wussiez, theft on May 25 of 500 yards of cotton cloth valued at $150 and 8 balls of thread, valued at $20, and 9 bobbins of thread, valued at $25, from the Palmer Bros. mill at Fitchville, not guilty.

At one o'clock Judge Brown declared a recess until three o'clock but court did not come in again until four o'clock as State Attorney Hull was in conference with attorneys who represented a number of the accused.

Charles Wilcox, Archie Daniels and Wm. Neff charged their plea to guilty to statutory burglary at the store of Oliver Neff in the Lyme turnpike on June 27. Attorney Clayton Smith, counsel for Wilcox, Daniels and Neff, explained that they were not ice cream, cigarettes and 17 pennies from the Neff store. Wilcox is an uncle by marriage to the other two men, has a wife and four small children. The attorney asked for probation in these cases. Public Defender Stewart spoke for Daniels and Neff arguing that their trouble was the result of weakness rather than viciousness. State Attorney Hull did not oppose probation and Judge Brown gave Wilcox a sentence of 1 year in jail, Daniels and Neff 9 months in jail with sentences suspended under probation in charge of Mr. Mansfield probation officer.

Judge Kelly made a statement to the court in the case of Wm. Verville of Lisbon who had pleaded guilty to simple assault on Verville's father because the father had cut off his supply of whiskey. The bill of costs in the case, including some hospital expenses, is about $150. Judge Brown talked to the man's father before pronouncing sentence, which he made 20 days in jail and costs.

Court adjourned at 4:30 until this (Wednesday) morning at 10 o'clock. One of the prisoners who was in the pen but was put put to plea was Gus Mokus of Springfield, accused of embezzlement of $400 from Hannibal Hamlin.

SENATOR RUDD TO COLLECT ON UNINCORPORATED BUSINESS

State Tax Commissioner Blodgett has announced the appointment of Senator Malcolm D. Rudd of Salisbury to have charge of the collection of the tax on unincorporated business which was levied by the 1921 session of the legislature. A tentative survey by the commissioner shows that a force of at least 35 men, one for each senatorial district, will be needed to work under Senator Rudd in building up the organization and facilities required to collect the $1,000,000 a year which the new tax is estimated to be capable of producing.

Senator Rudd was asked just after adjournment of the legislature to take the place, but on account of the pressure of his business was unable until now to accept. He is the treasurer and general manager of the Holley Manufacturing Co. of Lakeville, pocket cutlery makers.

The new law puts a tax of one mill on every dollar of gross income received by retail mercantile establishments, and manufacturing concerns that are not incorporated and a 25 cent tax on every $1,000 of gross income of unincorporated wholesale houses received in business conducted in this state. A minimum tax of $5 is to be collected from all businesses falling within the intent of the law. This will take in merchants, such as peanut vendors and others. Companies doing both wholesale and retail business are to be taxed separately on the different departments at the rates stated above.

Companies and partnerships liable to pay the tax are required to file returns with the tax commissioner and in the case of concerns not keeping books, the commissioner is authorized by the bill to fix a presumed gross income and assess on the given rates. The right of appeal to the commissioner for a special assessment and from the commissioner's decision to the superior court is given by the bill.

It is required that the initial return be made for the first business year prior to June 1, 1922, and annually after that.

County Teachers Plenty New
It was brought out at the meeting of state school supervisors in the capitol Thursday afternoon that there was no longer a scarcity of teachers for the rural schools of Connecticut and that present there were only seventeen vacancies in those schools. Motor Vehicle Commissioner Stoskiel made an address to the meeting on the subject of Safety First Week, to be observed this month. The commissioner said he was preparing a series of 84 lessons for the pupils attending the schools of the state during the week.

Announce Daughter's Engagement
Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Donahue of Baltimore announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Marguerite Hart Donahue to Maximilian A. Demps of South Manchester Connecticut. The wedding is to take place in October.

Engagement Announced
Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Ayer announced the engagement of their oldest daughter Lucile Amelia to Morris J. Anderson of Jewett City.

DROPS DEAD WITH ATTACK OF VALVULAR HEART DISEASE

Frank O'Brien, 47, of the Inn 25 Bank street, New London, dropped dead at the entrance to the hotel at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from an attack of heart failure. He was taken ill a few nights ago at the Columbia Leather Belt Co. where he has been employed. He came out of the attack but today felt sick again. He was standing at the entrance to the Inn, talking to Arthur Burdick when he said he felt ill. He turned to go up stairs and, after ascending a few stairs fell in his tracks.

Dr. H. H. Hoyer, medical examiner, was called and pronounced the man a victim of valvular heart failure. He leaves an invalid aged mother, Mrs. John O'Brien, who resides near the Golden South. His father, John O'Brien, was formerly a member of the police force.

REPORT THAT CIDER APPLES ARE TO BE SCARCE

Even Dame Nature seems to be working against the non-prohibitionist this year. Cider, grape wine and even elderberry wine, once despised as too common for ordinary use, will scarcely come up to the probable demand if the outlook on the farms is any criterion. According to the report of the market inspector apples will be scarce of all grades until the non-prohibitionist year. Cider is remote for the coming year.

There may be quite a little early cider, but the farmer is making up but little of this. The late cider will be scarce however, as the apple crop will hardly be sufficient to allow for much cider manufacture.

The Zinfandel grape, beloved of all grapes for wine making, especially the home made kind, is also scarce and but few of these are coming into the market. What little are arriving are being bought up at fancy prices, the winemaker, apparently, being willing to pay anything rather than be deprived of his usual supply of wine. The elderberry once despised as of too little consequence is also growing in demand, and judging from the calls received at the commission houses there will be lots of this grade of liquor disposed of.

The Zinfandel grape is much in demand by Italian speaking residents, who declare that it is the only grape which gives them the famous red ink or Italian wine. Other fruits appear to be heavy, especially peaches which are glutting the market.

Attended Anniversary Celebration
Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Greene of station 21, Waterford, with Mr. Greene's parents, Deacon and Mrs. A. C. Greene of Danabrook motored over to Westminster Sunday to attend the services held in celebration of the 72nd anniversary of the founding of the parish. It was at Westminster in 1848 that Deacon Greene, united with the church there and Sunday's visitation was in celebration of the event. Deacon Greene is 92 years old and 56 years ago on Tuesday was married to Mrs. Greene. Both are in the best of health and are the proud parents of two daughters and five sons.

WOMEN'S COMPENSATION AGREEMENTS GIVEN APPROVAL

The following eleven women's compensation agreements have been approved by Commissioner J. J. Donahue.

Ponemah Mills Taftville, employee, and Lena Troger, employee, allocated right elbow, at rate of $10.22.

Robert Gaid Co., Brooklyn, N. Y. employee, and M. Horback, Uncasville, employee bruised back and shoulders, at rate of $10.72.

Edwin Crispe, New London, employee, and George Mitchell, Old Lyme, employee, three ribs broken, at rate of $13.30.

Ponemah Mills, Taftville, employee, and Johanna Briggs, employee, wound in hand at rate of $6.15.

Versailles Sanitary Fibre Mills, Inc., employee, and Raymond Chapman, Sprague employee, broken finger, at rate of $9.78.

S. F. Peterson Inc., New London, employee, and Elizabeth Lancaster, employee, lacerated left hand, at rate of $13.50.

A. E. Badolay, New London, employee, and Chas. A. Kuebler Co., Norwich, employee, and John Bertman, Montville, piece of steel in arm, at rate of $18.00.

Mohican Hotel Co., New York, employee, and Marian Barco, New London, infected thumb, at rate of $18.50.

Saton Woolen Corporation, Norwich, employee, and Phoebe Rallison, nose broken and cut, at rate of $12.25.

A. E. Badolay, New London, employee, and John Aitchison, employee, two ribs broken, at rate of $18.00.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE ON GROUNDS OF CRUELTY

Mary Starr De Sylva of Stonington, a minor brings suit for divorce from Joseph De Sylva of 43 Lincoln street, Cambridge, Mass., alleging intolerable cruelty from the date of their marriage on February 8, 1919. The plaintiff claims that as a result of the intolerable cruelty of her husband she was obliged to leave him in Cambridge and has returned to this state with the intention of permanently remaining. She asks the custody of a one year old daughter.

Prize Winning Penalty

Among the poultry exhibitors at the New London county fair was Christopher Barry of 27 Reynolds street who won five prizes out of six entries, his pen of Barred Plymouth Rocks taking first prize and his R. I. Reds winning second and third prizes.

It's a poor brand of virtue that goes around seeking temptations.

DRINK NAUGATUCK DIAMOND GINGER ALE

Quality First for over 50 years

JOS. CONNOR & SONS CO., DISTRIBUTORS, PHONE 399

POETRY

Field Voices.
Softer than falling twilight, with never a har nor best,
Harmonies subtle crying, the harmony of wheat.
For overture the fallows, far reaching, ridged and dun,
Patiently find and seeded in the light of a waning sun,
Quickening swift, tall, valiant, with tender new green blades—
They will clash and clang at harvest when late with faming trades,
Nursed by whispering snowfall, ripped in sun-gold heat,
Hear their low, swift, slow, the tenor of the wheat.

As black, as quick, as grave mould, long level bottoms reach—
Grave mould indeed from the moons beyond all time and speech—
King Otonia laughs above them—right royal in his breed—
His blossoms armies conquer by the might of naked need.
He coves no harping minstrel, nor cymbal, trump, nor drum—
He shakes his snowy fescues—and swift they are not in the fleece ghosts from the grass black mould—
The ghosts are low or high, in this keen clink of gold.

If lark notes could be seeded they would spring in mowing grass.
Lifting down to dwell, to all the clouds Luring vagrant shadows to play on its dimpling breast.
Flouting its own nature that climb the lither crest.
Swarmed both, yet rivals for the favor of the wind, the sun, the rain, the dew,
Rich rushings from the upland the laughing levels gain.
And into the harrow, run riot, spring lusty, green and tall.
The low winds whisper through them, "The grassland feedeth all."

Giants at ease in sunshine the ready stripped for the age wild wrestle, to grumbling has they cry—
"Seed and sun, O Masters, We, please, ing, aching to feel!
Rolling, ewing harrows and keen, Long, straight cashing furrows, thrills of the waking seed,
We did it, we sowed, Give us our fruited mead."

This is the chorus round that wise And time with grateful heart beats to the march of a fruitful year.
Marius McCulloch Williams, in New York Herald.

Early Wildflowers

From whose down slanting finger tip Did they seed slip
Into the heart of earth?
No gardener's hand could ever light A flame so bright
To upward at its birth,
The beauty of the slender grace
Has but one face
To pause and stare in praise:
But one full moment there
We mustly share
A sort untrod ways.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"Made?—I'll never speak to you again!" said the Englishman. "Oh, haven't we?" returned the American. "Did you ever see one of our plumbers at work?"
—Dental Digest.

"You probably won't agree with me, but—"
"But what?"
"Any politician will tell you that factions speak louder than words."
—Wayside Tales.

"I'd like to take a Turkish bath, but I haven't the price."
"Don't spend money. Just step into this phone booth and wait until Central gets your number."
—American Legion Weekly.

"You have no leisure class in America," said the Englishman. "Oh, haven't we?" returned the American. "Did you ever see one of our plumbers at work?"
—Dental Digest.

"It's outrageous the way women dress nowadays."
"It certainly is. What right have they got to be cooler than we are?"
—Dental Digest.

Bicker—"Did you ever stop to think?"
Knacker—"Of—"
Bicker—"That, that it's a wise child that knows its own father—likewise, a wise cork that knows its own pop."
—Wayside Tales.

Young Son—"Father, what is the difference between a taxidermist and a taxicab?"
Father—"No difference, my son; they both skin you."
—Wayside Tales.

Tom—"Did you fall with the breakers when you were down at the seashore?"
Jack—"Yes; I met two charming girls and they broke me in a week."
—Boston Transcript.

"I hear that Jub's prodigal son came home and said he would be contented to be treated like one of the servants."
"He had all the nerve in the world, didn't he?"
—American Legion Weekly.

"If you want to be really popular with men," says Mr. Arthur Pendennis, "become a widow." This, of course, may be all right, but few husbands can really learn to love a wife who makes a practice of this sort of thing.—Punch (London).

Doctor—"If the patient coughs up during the day, let me know."
Nurse—"Why, doctor, you haven't sent in your bill yet!"
—Wayside Tales.

KALEIDOSCOPE

John Macadam, inventor of macadam roads, was a Scotchman.

San Francisco has more telephones per capita than any other large city.

Iowa has 208,120 farms of which nearly one-half are operated by their owners.

The cannibals of New Guinea use oyster shells to carve decorations on their bodies.

At the present rate of growth India will have a population of 450,000,000 in 1950.

The Philippine islands export more coconut oil than any other district in the world.

The Papuans use the spine of the sting ray for arrow points used in shooting fish.

The waters of the Grand Falls of Laurader have excavated a channel thirty miles long.

Before bees swarm advance agents fly about often for a distance of many miles to locate a new residence.

The mariners' magnetic compass of today is the same in principle as that used by the Chinese 1500 years ago.

The affix "ester," or "cheater," prominent in names of English cities, is a corruption of the Roman word "castra," a camp.

France's birth rate of 7 to 1,005, with infant mortality at 20 per cent, of births, compares badly with Germany's birth rate of 20 to 1,000 with infant mortality at 10 per cent, of births.

George Washington took command of the colonial forces under an elm tree which is still standing in a stone throw of the main entrance of the Harvard college. It is known as the "Washington elm."

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

Women's New Fall Dresses

SPECIALY PRICED AT $25.00

Made to Sell up to $42.50

These Dresses Are charmingly fashioned of Canton Crepe and Crepe-back Satin, all beaded and embroidered and have the distinctive new sleeves that mark the latest fall styles. At $25.00 they are marvelous value. Colors are black, navy and brown.

Waists at Special Prices

Women's hand-made